POLITICAL PARADE

By CLEM WHITAKER

State and local governments, long threatened with being swallowed up by the Federal government—just as the whale swallowed Jonah—will be lucky if they come through the war with a whole skin and any remnant of their independent sovereignty!

That becomes clearer each day, as Washington bureaucrats, taking advantage of the people's pre-occupation with the war, put on the pressure in their drive to usurp state and local authority in an all-powerful national government.

Pending, at this writing, are sweeping proposals that the Federal Government, through the War Labor Board assume jurisdiction over wages, hours and working conditions of state and municipal employees—and recognize the right of such employees to go on strike.

It is hardly necessary to point out that if the national government once obtains such jurisdiction over city and state employees that the various mayors and governors, city councils and legislatures, will have about the same degree of independent authority that the Vichy government in France has under Hitler. A state which can't control its own state employees has ceased to be a state—and certainly that is doubly true when another authority can authorize them to strike against the state.

American city and state officials, however, are finally aroused and will voice their opposition, in vigorous language, on Dec. 9, when the War Labor Board brings the issue to a show-down with hearings on disputed cases.

Spearheading the opposition, Mayor La Guardia of New York, president of the United States Conference of Mayors, has declared flatly that the Federal Government cannot change wages fixed by state or municipal laws; that the WLB has no jurisdiction over disputes between governmental agencies and their civil service employees, and that public employees have no right to strike.

Equally emphatic in denouncing the new attempt at Federal encroachment on local government, H. Eliot Kaplan, secretary of the National Civil Service Reform League, has declared, "No greater imposition by a Federal agency on the constitutional prerogatives of the state has ever been attempted."

It remains to be seen, now, who will win. If Washington wins, it may mean the beginning of the end for home rule in America—at least until the American people learn about it.

Leslie Davidson of Budd avenue is in the hospital for observation and possible operation.

NEW "BEE" OPEN FOR BUSINESS

Opening at its new location on the south side of Campbell avenue just west of Central this week, the new Busy Bee cafe is a model of modern design and a distinct credit to its proprietor, Anthony Raffanti.

Raffanti spared no expense in making his new place pleasing to his patrons and convenient for the staff. Featuring a long counter with comfortable stools, two booths and a compact kitchen, the place is well heated and ventilated and boasts commodious refrigeration units.

This reporter sampled the luncheon cuisine there yesterday and is pleased to report that the food is excellent. A good cook is evidently behind the scenes, and the service left nothing to be desired (even to a very nice looking waitress).

Yes, indeed, the new cafe is a credit to the community, and would be a credit to a larger town than Campbell. Your reporter recommends that you drop in for a personal inspection.

Services for Mother of Mrs. Pardee Friday

Mrs. Catherine Nichol, a native of Toronto, Canada, 91 year old mother of Mrs. John J. Pardee, Sunnyoaks avenue, passed away Nov. 24, in Santa Cruz and funeral services were held Friday afternoon from the Roger Darling Garden chapel, with interment in Oak Hill Memorial Park.

The Rev. James H. Strayer of the Calvary Methodist church in San Jose conducted the service, and M. E. Purmort, G. W. Burrow, L. J. Carboni, M. E. Mumma, William Farum, all of Campbell, and O. H. Yerkes of Santa Clara served as pall bearers.

Mrs. Nichol is survived by two other daughters, Mrs. Isabel Bernard of Yerington, Nevada, and Mrs. Andrew Johnston, of Verdi, Nevada.

Graduates from Officers' School

Ray Chester Conrad, Rt. 1, Box 235, Campbell, was graduated this week from the Officer Candidate School at Fort Sill, Okla., and has been commissioned Second Lieutenant in the Field Artillery of the Army of the United States.

Lieut. Conrad, son of Mrs. M. B. Conrad, reported to Fort Sill from Fort Lewis, Wash., and has been assigned to Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

ENLISTEES

Several Campbell names appear on a recent roll of enlistees in the navy or naval reserves: Stanford Russell Lee, Rt. 1, Box 628; James Joseph Gannon, 310 North Harrison; Edmund Willis Blackmun, Rt. 1, Box 694T; and Edward Vernon Arbuckle, 174 Carlyn avenue.

PUSH HARDER!

High School Faculty Honors Mrs. Crawford

The faculty of the Campbell High school honored Mrs. John H. Crawford, school secretary, the former Dorothy Penhall, with a social tea Wednesday afternoon, and presented her with a gift.

Miss Penhall was married on Nov. 16 at Reno to Sergeant John H. Crawford but returned to her position here after a weeks vacation as her husband will be serving his country for the duration.

The party was also a farewell for Harold H. Drummond of the faculty, who reported at Monterey this morning as a physical education instructor. Later he will be stationed at Hamilton Field.

Walter L. Hill of San Jose has been secured to take over Drummond's classes here in general science and boys physical education.

Guild to Hold Tea and Sale

The members of the Congregational Guild will hold a Christmas sale and tea in the church parlors on Thursday, Dec. 10, from 1:30 to 5:30 p. m.

There will be fancy work, aprons and other articles suitable for Christmas gifts and food for sale.

Joseph Tate Rites Held Wednesday

Joseph K. Tate, a former resident of Hazel avenue, Campbell, passed away in San Jose, Monday, after an illness of several weeks.

Farewell services were held yesterday from the Roger Darling parlors and interment was in Los Gatos cemetery.

He leaves his wife Alletta Lee Tate, and a son, Joseph Moser Tate of Watsonville, a daughter, Vere Alletta, preceded him in death.

Joseph Tate was born in Quincy, California, 77 years ago.

A Capella Choir Will Entertain At Club Meeting

The a capella choir of the Campbell Union High school will present a program to the Country Woman's club on Monday afternoon, Dec. 7.

The choir is under the direction of C. P. Klassen of the music department of the high school and will sing several groups of songs including Christmas carols and songs of Thanksgiving. In the past years the choir has given a program at the annual Christmas tea but will be unable to do so this year because of the vacation period and gas rationing.

The topic for Monday's meeting will be "Education in Latin America." Miss Annie Adams and Mrs. R. B. Hummel will talk on the subject. Mrs. H. C. Smith will act as chairman and Mrs. Roy Magnuson and Mrs. E. F. Whistler will be responsible for the decorating.

Urgent Call for Bundles for Russia

Rev. Mark Rifenbark of San Jose has asked Rev. J. H. Bennett to inaugurate a collection of warm winter clothing to be sent through the Russian relief to the suffering people of the Soviet Union.

Any articles of used clothing, wool, heavy fleeced, or leather for men, women or children are needed. They should be tied in parcels for easier handling. Leave bundles in Decker's store at the former meat market area. The deadline for giving the clothing is Dec. 12.

"Bundles for Russia" are even more badly needed than were the "bundles for Britain."

HERE FROM IDAHO

Corp. Al Frank of the 411th Bomb Squadron at Gowen Field, Boise, Idaho, arrived last week in Campbell on a 10-day furlough. He is visiting his brother Paul Frank and family.

Clubmen Hold Ladies' Night

The Campbell Kiwanis club held one of the most enjoyable ladies' nights in its history Tuesday when 72 members, wives and other guests enjoyed a dinner, and a period of relaxing entertainment both humorous and serious.

President J. E. Murdock, welcomed the company and presided over the earlier part of the evening, after which Paul Becker took over, and led some real and some fantastic singing, and conducted a very unusual contest for which Mrs. Mary Grim, Mrs. Mabel Abbott and Mrs. Rebecca Van Dyke were judges.

A trio of musicians Richard Gordon, violin, Mrs. Gordon, 'cello, and Mrs. Virginia Rutherford, piano, played three selections, Waltz in A Major (Brahms), Calm As the Night (Bohn) and Hungarian Dance Number 6 (Brahms).

Rev. Don Baldwin, with Mrs. Rutherford accompanist, sang "Lost In London Town," and "I'm Dreaming of a White Christmas."

In the absence of Dr. James De Voss who was ill, Laurence Hill, teacher of aeronautics at the new Abraham Lincoln High school in San Jose, presented a very clear and understandable talk on "America and the Air Age." Naturally he could only outline such a subject upon which the most salient facts were hung.

He treated the subject from two phases, military and civil. With old and new types of maps, starting with Mecator's projection, to the latest type which shows the actual direction of air routes as though on a globe, he made clear the vast strategic difference between a global air war and preceding wars on sea and land.

In addition to the members' wives there were a number of other guests, Messrs. and Mesdames Hill, Gordon, Rutherford, C. D. Loper, San Jose, Hans Hansen, Peter Yerkovich, J. O. Leverton, Miss Martha Parr, Mrs. H. C. Smith and T. A. Robinson.

Mr. Yerkovich was down from Moffett Field where he is one of the navy that helps keep the blimps in flying trim.

Brother of Dr. Crothers Dies

Last rites were held this morning from the Amos Williams chapel for John J. Crothers of San Jose, a brother of Dr. William H. Crothers, Hamilton avenue, Thomas G. Crothers and Judge George E. Crothers, San Francisco and Wesley E. Crothers, Alpine county.

John Crothers was a native of Armah, North Ireland, aged 82 years.

Interment was in Oak Hill Memorial Park.

ANNUAL ROLL CALL

Morning Light Lodge No. 42, I. O. O. F. will observe its annual roll call with supper, next Thursday, Dec. 10.

Miss Margaret Tanner Bride of Lt. H. O. Ekern

A wedding of interest to many Campbell friends which was consummated some weeks ago in the post chapel at Fort Lewis, Wash., united Miss Margaret Tanner and Lieut. Halvor O. Ekern, Jr., U. S. A. of Missoula, Mont.

The chapel was prettily decorated with flowers and tapers for the ceremony and the bride was lovely in a fitted gown of white satin with which she wore a finger-tip length veil and her bouquet was of white gardenias and bouvardia.

She was attended by Miss Eleanor Felling of San Francisco as maid of honor, and her niece, Miss Robin Dawn Tanner as flower girl, both most attractively gowned, in harmonizing shades of blue, and carrying pink roses.

Lieut. William Lueck acted as groomsmen.

The bride was given in marriage by Colonel Fletcher of the 87th Mountain regiment with which Lieut. Ekern is stationed.

A honeymoon was enjoyed in Canada for which they left after a reception at the officers' club.

The lieutenant has been transferred and is now at a maneuvers camp beyond King City and Mrs. Ekern is staying in San Jose with Mrs. Elizabeth M. Townsend, former Campbell resident, with whom she made her home while attending San Jose State college.

Christmas Tea And Sale Friday

Tomorrow (Friday) afternoon, Dec. 4, between the hours of 2:30 and 5:30 the Methodist church parlors will be the setting for a "White Christmas" bazaar and tea.

There will be a booth of fancy work, a white elephant table and a cooked foods booth, at which Christmas items will be featured, puddings, cookies and so forth.

A program will be repeated during the afternoon consisting of a group of readings by Miss Emma Borzone of the grammar school; a group of Christmas carols by the cherub choir, and another group by the Rev. D. H. Baldwin.

A small fee will be charged for the tea.

Do Christmas Mailing Early

Have you mailed your Christmas packages and cards for out of state points? The postal department is suffering from greatly reduced help and transportation facilities, so is asking for cooperation by the mailing public.

December 1 was set as the last day of mailing for the Atlantic states, Dec. 7 for midwest and Dec. 13 for California points to insure probable delivery.

Mrs. Hans Nielsen spent last week with relatives in Fresno.

ONE YEAR OF WAR

On Monday of next week will fall the first anniversary of a black day in American history—the attack on Pearl Harbor. On Tuesday, the United States will have been officially at war one year.

A year of war is never other than tragic to look back upon, in many respects. Thousands of deaths, men lost as prisoners, anxieties, griefs, military reverses, civilian sacrifices—all are inevitable in every year of every war. And victory seems far ahead at this time.

A comparison of America's position now, however, with her position at the end of the first year of the first World War, shows that we are vastly better off now than we were then.

At the year's end, in 1918, Russia had collapsed, Germany had concentrated all forces in the West, the tremendous Battle of the Somme, with Europe's fate in the balance, was raging. Now, Germany has failed to escape the fate of fighting on two fronts. Russia has not failed.

In 1918, American artillery units were obliged to borrow artillery from the French—so inadequate was our own production! Now, America is not only supplying her own new Army with the best weapons of every type, but is producing and delivering vast armaments to her allies.

America has far more troops under arms than in April, 1918—and they are better trained, more thoroughly seasoned. Hundreds of thousands of them have been in training longer than the entire period of our participation in the first World War.

Then, in our inexperience and experimental haste, we built planes unfit to fly—built ships, in hundreds of instances, so unseaworthy that they never left port, and rotted in harbors until sold for junk. Now, because industrial and military brains profited by the lessons of '17 - '18, America has built soundly as well as swiftly, and is on the way to creation, in the next year, of the finest fighting force in history, backed by a mighty industrial force of machines and workers.

What this nation has accomplished in one year of war is cause for confidence that America shall develop power to achieve final victory.

CHRISTMAS TREE BLACKOUT

This December there can be no night-time glory of outdoor Christmas trees in the war-darkened land of California. As if in mourning for a once gay and shining night world that has forgotten beauty, thousands of trees that once shamed the splendor of the moon and stars will cast lonely shadows on a dreary, dimmed-out landscape. Where, in years of peace, sparkling Christmas trees at several city approaches drew visitors from hundred of miles, the trees will serve only to deepen the somberness of the highway.

The custom of lighting outdoor trees at Christmas time had its birth in California. Communities and individuals have vied in creating such glories. Those times will come again, as everyone knows, when the world has passed through its present horror. Meanwhile, the memory of past December night scenes lives indestructible. As Keats sang:

A thing of beauty is a joy forever;
Its loveliness increases; it will never Pass into nothingness; but still will keep
A bower quiet for us, and a sleep
Full of sweet dreams, and health, and quiet breathing.

CHRISTMAS SEALS THE DOOR

Christmas Seals promise children, promise all those suffering from tuberculosis, and those, without preventive care, who might, that we will help them "seal the door" against infection. A dollar or two, or more, thus spent will help keep the home front and the future leaders in our nation, healthy, happy and free. Perhaps it means giving up something we enjoy, but isn't that also part of the real spirit of Christmas? That impersonal giving that extends beyond our loved ones to our less fortunate fellow men?

To those who need our help, Christmas Seals will mean hope, perhaps even life itself. Buy yours today.

Committee Aids In War Relief

The Christian Science War Relief committee with more than 1500 branch units active in the United States besides many more in other countries has assembled since Pearl Harbor over 66,000 pounds of durable clothing and bedding, in waterproof, moth-proof wooden cases, at convenient locations on the Atlantic and Pacific coasts, ready for instant use should emergencies arise because of local enemy action. More than 32,800 garments have been distributed, through military distribution centers, to men in the United States forces.

One of the most impressive branches of the work from the start, before America entered the war, has been the distribution of clothing and comforts to bombed-out people in Great Britain and to refugees from Holland, Norway, Russia, Poland, Belgium and other European countries.

Overseas workers have arrived in cities heavily bombed such as Plymouth, Coventry, Bristol and Southampton with food and clothing, ready to go to work, even before the "all clear" sounded.

The committee is ready to aid in relieving human suffering caused by war wherever it can; and it co-operates with many other officially recognized relief agencies when sudden needs arise, readily contributing whatever of its supplies are available.

FROM PORTUGAL

Mrs. Noel Voge arrived in New York from Lisbon by boat, Dec. 1 and will spend some time with her sister-in-law Mrs. Evelyn Voge Canfield in Glen Ellen, Ill.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

October 27, 1942

The unholy alliance between war and disease is particularly powerful in the case of tuberculosis. Tuberculosis has increased in every past war. The disease is increasing alarmingly in many warring European and Asiatic countries.

In the United States tuberculosis is now at the lowest rate in our history. But, to hold the disease in check during wartime will demand the greatest effort possible on the part of the people, the medical profession, the tuberculosis associations and the official health departments. Cooperation of all people in the fight against tuberculosis is imperative.

The tuberculosis associations are well under way in their intensified and expanded wartime campaign. I have full confidence that the American people will generously aid the purchase of Christmas Seals, the main support of the National Tuberculosis Association and its seventeen hundred affiliated associations, to their many other wartime activities.

Last Rites Held
For Train-Auto
Collision Victims

Three lives were crushed out Thanksgiving morning at the Fruitdale crossing of the Southern Pacific by a freight train, as they were enroute east on the road going to work. They were Eluterio Enriquez, 51; Cruz Louis Martinez, 19; and Amelia Mercado, 16, all living at Rt. 1, Box 362, Downing avenue.

Martinez, the driver, stepson of Enriquez, drove the car in front of the train and the collision jammed it against the front of the locomotive, where it was dragged some distance. Bodies of the victims were still in the car when the train was halted, and were taken to the Rutherford Funeral Home.

Last rites for Amelia Mercado were held Saturday from the home of her aunt, Mrs. Minnie Garcia in San Jose with mass at St. Martin's church.

Be Mailed Soon

Results of the first four days of the Christmas Seal Sale of the Santa Clara County Tuberculosis association total $3,772.90 says Oran Slaght, treasurer of the association.

"This means we are one-sixth of the way toward our goal. The goal set for this county is $23,000."

Citizens of the county are urged to mail in their returns for Christmas Seals as soon as possible, so that early plans may be formulated for the program of the coming year.

Martinez were observed Monday from the family residence with mass at the same church. All three in charge of the Rutherford Funeral Home.

Numerous relatives, most of them living in Campbell, are left to mourn the tragic deaths.

Hydes Spend
Thanksgiving
In the South

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hyde, accompanied by Mrs. F. R. Husted of San Jose, drove down to North Hollywood last week and had Thanksgiving dinner with Mrs. Husted's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Greene. The Homer Hydes were also with them.

The principal reason for the trip was an auto accident in which Mrs. Homer Hyde and small son, Jerry, were the innocent victims.

A truck struck the rear wheel of her car, turned the machine about and bent the body so that the door was forced open and the baby in his little hooked-on seat, flew out onto the pavement. Most miraculously he was uninjured except for a very minor bump, and his mother also escaped. However the car was too badly twisted to pay for repair and was sold to an auto mechanic.

Coach Seats to be Reserved During
Holiday Season

Southern Pacific announced today that advance reservations for coach as well as sleeping car travel will be required for the holiday period from Dec. 15 to Jan. 5 in order that preference may be given to the thousands of men of the armed forces who will be travelling home on furlough and to relatives who will be visiting the boys at the camps and bases.

Coach reservations, it was stated, may be made only at ticket offices at the time tickets are purchased, and not by telephone.

F. S. McGinnis, vice president in charge of passenger traffic for the railroad, issued an urgent appeal to the general public to forego all rail travel not vital to the war effort during the holiday period.

McGinnis pointed out that since the start of the defense program, the S. P. has consistently followed the policy that the needs of the armed services must come first.

HI-Y CONFERENCE
Some ten of Campbell's Hi-Y boys joined with others from Sunnyvale, Santa Clara, Morgan Hill, San Mateo and Palo Alto in a conference in San Jose under Hi-Y auspices. The theme for the various conferences was "This Is the Victory," and a number of educators and "Y" leaders addressed the groups.

BIRTHS

A son, Donald Lee, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Archie L. Pope, on Nov. 20, at the San Jose hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. William Jennings are parents of a girl, weighing eight pounds ten ounces, born Nov. 22 at O'Connor sanitarium. Mrs. Jennings is the former Olivia Valencie. The baby has been named Lydia.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Brice Whitmore and family had Thanksgiving day dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Silberbauer.

Southern Pacific is facing a critical situation in connection with holiday travel. Many thousands of men in uniform are being given holiday furloughs. We think everyone agrees that these men should be given first consideration. We intend to carry them wherever they wish to go.

Where men in uniform are not going on furlough they will be visited, in many cases, by their parents or wives. Their travel requirements must be recognized, too.

The tide of war traffic — troops, equipment, supplies and war materials — is mounting higher and higher, and we are hard pressed to supply the equipment to move it. Every locomotive we have or can rent is being used. The supply of passenger-carrying cars left for civilian use is naturally reduced.

Consequently, we will not be able to carry all the people who want to make holiday trips, despite all our efforts to increase the passenger-carrying capacity of our trains.

This is why we ask you not to travel during the holiday season.

The FARMERS CORNER

by RALPH H. TAYLOR

Executive Secretary
Agricultural Council of California

There's a day of rude awakening coming next March, when American taxpayers, big and small, learn how much they owe Uncle Sam under the drastically increased Federal income tax and the Victory tax, enacted to aid the nation's war-time financing.

While the newspapers have published a great deal of news concerning the new taxes, recent surveys, conducted both by government officers and private agencies, indicate that most of the people have no conception of the taxes they will be required to pay, and that 75 per cent of taxpayers are not saving any portion of their wages or earnings to foot the bill.

The failure to recognize the need for building a reserve to meet the income tax levies when they fall due is more pronounced among taxpayers in the lower income groups, many of whom have not previously paid such taxes, and nation-wide check-ups indicate that only 15 per cent of the people in this category have started to make any provision for meeting their first tax installment on March 15.

The fact that the new, war-time income tax is a tax on the masses, which will even tap the pocketbook of the $15-a-week delivery boy, doesn't seem to have registered with the public, and treasury officials are alarmed at the possibility that many taxpayers will be wholly unprepared to meet their obligations, with the result that there will be widespread tax delinquencies. Government officers also are concerned over the possibility that many taxpayers will sell their War Bonds and Stamps to get money to meet their tax bills, thus reducing the amount which will be available to prosecute the war.

If chaotic conditions obtain when it comes time to pay the new Federal taxes, with thousands of taxpayers compelled to make bank loans to meet their bills, with others disposing of their war securities, and with still others in difficulties with Uncle Sam for failure to pay, it may hasten Federal action to put the new tax program on a pay-as-you-earn basis.

Some indication of what the new levy will amount to for the individual taxpayer is found in the fact that a married man, with two children, who earns $50 a week, will have to pay approximately $165. A man with two children, whose earnings approximate $10,000 a year, will get a bill for between $2100 and $2200.

On top of that, in California, there's a State income tax, as the voters failed to

by marty

"Rig for Church" by Captain William A. Maguire, (Chc) U. S. N.

Here is a book that I feel will give everybody a thrill who reads it, whether he be old or young, man or woman. It is the life story of a Navy Chaplain, a Catholic priest in the service of God and country. Chaplain Maguire remarked, when asked by a young man who had the leaning toward pacifism why he joined the Navy, and why he was so anxious to go overseas in the last war, and was it the spirit of adventure or hatred for the enemy, "I believe he is so like many others who do not understand the life mission of a Catholic priest. Unfortunately, there are many Americans who fail to understand the supernatural motive that inspires a priest in his holy mission. They do not know that a priest goes into battle for the sole purpose of administering the Sacraments to the dying and to bolster the courage of those about to face death. A priest serves in our Spartan ships of war because he yearns to reach the hearts of men to keep alive there the Faith of Our Fathers."

The author begins his book with his childhood, telling simply what event in his youth made him decide to study to be a priest. Once his mind was made up, never did he hesitate in his determination to be ordained. Throughout his training and education he takes the reader, giving his trials and hardships as well as his happier moments and inspirational occasions. How he became a Navy Chaplain is significant and characteristic. He served in the first World War and was aboard ship on convoy duty off the coast of Brittany when the Florence H. was blown up in Quiberon Bay, and was with the Grand Fleet at Scapa Flow.

After the war he travelled around this troubled world and he gives a fascinating and clear account of events and places which have contributed so much to recent happenings in China, the Philippines and Turkey. He closes his book with a personal account of the attack on Pearl Harbor, where he carried out his duty as an officer and chaplain in the Navy in the full glory of its tradition.

This much is certain: The state has no need for the surplus it is now accumulating—and some provision should be made for passing along the saving to the taxpayers. When Federal tax-time comes round the taxpayer will need a break—and need it badly!

CAMP FIRE GIRLS

The "Tanda" group of Campfire Girls planned a weenie roast for the 30th, but because of the rain they held their meeting in the Campfire room in the Scout hall.

The first part of the meeting they talked about miscellaneous things. They spent the last part of the meeting cleaning the room and making kindling out of old boxes and went to play a few games.

The weenie roast will be held the 14th.

"World At War" Thrill-Packed Film of Decade

A motion picture packed with all the excitement, all the drama and force of its title, "The World at War" will be shown at the Campbell theatre Friday and Saturday, Dec. 4 and 5.

Presented by the United States government, and starring the little people of the earth, "The World at War" is a pictorial record of the most turbulent decade in history, the past ten years, and their treacherous climax at Pearl Harbor. Tracing as it does the pattern of fascist aggression, revealing as it does the tragedies of the past and the promise of the future, "The World at War" is an historic document made the more important because of its essential entertainment qualities.

Packed with sequences of gripping intensity, "The World at War" is an authentic feature-length record of the past and present. None of it was staged, although the commentator does state that some of the film's sequences were captured from Hitler, or confiscated from his agents here and amongst other United Nations, and it is possible that some of those sequences were arranged by Herr Goebbels to prove the "invincibility" of the "New Order."

Nazi Kultur is pictured here in all its horrible in decency, in all its pagan barbarism. The fascist drive for world domination began with Japan's attack upon Manchuria in 1931, followed through Italy in Ethiopia, Italy and Germany in Spain,

Memories of home tug hardest during the holiday season. Recruit and veteran alike feel it. Share your Christmas holidays with the boys in Service. It is the kindest, most sincere way to show you care.

Furloughs for the holidays have been restricted. Return to home will have to wait until Victory and Peace have been attained. There is a ranch boy from Wyoming who will miss his Sis, home from college for the brief vacation. There are thousands of boys such as these—away from home, each one eager to meet home folks, talk to someone who reminds him of Dad or Mother or Uncle Hal or Aunt Cassie.
